Zion hears the watchmen's voices,
Their gladd'ning cry her soul rejoices
The shadows of her night depart
In His might her Lord appeareth
His word of grace and truth she heareth
The day star riseth in her heart.
O come in splendour bright
Lord Jesu, Light of Light!
Hosanna!

We follow Thee, Thy joy to see,
Where ever lasting bliss, shall be.

Bible Study Outline

THEME: GOD'S CHILDREN AS PILGRIMS TO THE HEAVENLY KINGDOM:

MANIFESTATION OF GOD'S REIGN ON EARTH

SUB-THEME: Living the Victorious Life 3

TOPIC: Victory over Satan

TEXTS: Luke 10: 17-20

AIMS:

- i. to expound the operation of Satan,*
- ii. to study the victory of Jesus over satan and*
- iii. to discover how we can continuously live victorious lives over satan.*

INTRODUCTION

Satan is traditionally understood as an angel who rebelled against God and was cast out of heaven with other "fallen" angels before the creation of humankind. Biblically, he is always against every work of God. Our text today revealed how the power of the Gospel of Jesus Christ brought satan under submission. Satan manifests in various ways to bring down Children of God; but with the garment of righteousness and the pure Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ in our mouth, we shall surely conquer him.

STUDY GUIDE:

1. Describe satan in the context of his operations according to the following passages. Job 2:1; Matt 4:8-9; 2Cor 11:14; 1Pet 5:8.
2. How can a Christian become a slave to satanic manipulations? Jn 13:26-27, 30; 2Tim 4:10
3. Analyse the victory of Jesus over Satan according to Matt 4:4, 7, 10; Lk 22:41-42; Phil 2:7-11?
4. How can we overcome satanic manipulation in our Christian race? Rom 16:19-20; Rev 12:9-11; 14:4-5

CONCLUSION: Though Satan has been defeated, and eventually will be thrown into the lake of fire, he is still actively spreading evil. Therefore, as pilgrims to the kingdom of heaven, we need to always put on our garment of righteousness with the testimony of Christ's victory over the power of Hell in our mouth, so as to continuously defeat satan and all his agents.

FOOD FOR THOUGHT: To sustain victory over Satan, remain in Christ and the word of God.

MEMORY VERSE: Rom 16:20 "And the God of peace shall bruise Satan under your feet shortly. The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you. Amen".

SPIRITUAL TONIC FOR THE WEEK

John 10: 10b

I have come that they may have life, and have it to the full.

Jesus Christ came into the world that I may have life and have it to the full. This Christmas season and all the days of my life, I will live and be lively both in my spirit and in my body. The life of Christ will fill me and I will bring life to others in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

10. Free Will

The condition of man since the fall of Adam is such that he cannot turn and prepare himself by his own natural strength and good works for faith and for calling upon the name of the Lord. Hence we have no power to do good works which are pleasing and acceptable to God, unless the grace of God through Christ goes before us so that we may have a good will, and continues to work with us after we are given that good will.

11. The Justification of Man

We are accounted righteous before God solely on account of the merit of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ through faith and not on account of our own good works or of what we deserve. Consequently the teaching that we are justified by faith alone is a most wholesome and comforting doctrine. This is taught more fully in the homily on Justification.

PRAYER FOR THE YEAR

Eternal Father, the only God of wonders and possibilities, Your power is beyond compare, with You there is no impossibility, we acknowledge before You our feebleness; if Your power will not be our power we are doomed to failure: Grant, O Lord, that each day of our lives, this year and beyond, will be a reflection of Your wondrous power, level the mountains and break down gates of bronze before us to make possible every impossibility that lies ahead. We beseech You also to visit our land with Your unfailing help, cut through the bars of iron to deliver to us the treasures and riches stored in secret places, in Your mercy redeem and re-establish our Nation; and accomplish for Your Church what only You can accomplish to the praise and honour of Your one and only Son Jesus Christ our Lord and Redeemer. Amen.

Theme for the year: WITH GOD ALL THINGS ARE POSSIBLE

TEXT: MATTHEW 19:26

HYMN FOR THE YEAR

ALL THINGS ARE POSSIBLE TO HIM

1. All things are possible to him
That can in Jesus' name believe;
Lord, I no mote thy truth blaspheme,
Thy truth I lovingly receive;
I can, I do believe in thee;
All things are possible to me.

2. The most impossible of all
Is that I e'er from sin should cease;
Yet shall it be; I know it shall;
Jesus, look to thy faithfulness!
If nothing is too hard for thee,
All things are possible to me.

3. Though earth and Hell the word gainsay,
The word of God can never fail;
The Lamb shall take my sins away,
'Tis certain, though impossible;
The thing impossible shall be,
All things are possible to me.

4. When thou the work of faith hast wrought,
I here shall in thine image shine,
Nor sin in deed or word or thought;
Let men exclaim and fiends repine,
They cannot break the firm decree;
All things are possible to me.

5. Thy mouth, O Lord, to me hath sworn
That I shall serve thee without fear,
Shall find the pearl which others spurn,
Holy and pure and perfect here;
The servant as his Lord shall be;
All things are possible to me.

6. All things are possible to God,
To Christ, the power of God in man,
To me, when I am all renewed,
When I in Christ am formed again,
And witness, from all sin set free,
All things are possible to me.

THE PLACE OF HIS WILL

"I am the Lord's servant," Mary answered. "May your word to me be fulfilled." Then the angel left her." Luke 1:38

Our theme, "The Place of His Will," explores how conformity to the will of God leads to extraordinary miracles in humans' lives. The story of Mary in Luke 1:26-38 illustrates the intricate relationship between doing God's will and the occurrence of miracles. It emphasises the sovereignty of God in initiating miracles and the necessity of human receptivity and obedience to God's will for such initiated miracles to come to pass.

Mary had been told that she would conceive a child through the Holy Spirit despite being a virgin and unmarried. Upon receiving the message from the angel Gabriel, she was filled with fear and trepidation. She knew fully well the cultural and societal implications of her situation that an unwed mother would be stigmatised and ostracised by her community. Despite her fears, uncertainties, and questions, Mary trusted God's divine plan for her life and surrendered to the will of God. In Luke 1:38, she affirms her surrender, "I am the Lord's servant, and tells Gabriel, "May your word to me be fulfilled." Accordingly, God greatly favoured her and blessed her with the birth of Jesus through extraordinary circumstances.

The will of God refers to the divine sovereign plan or purpose that guides the universe and all living beings to fulfil God's purpose. Scripture says: "Our God is in heaven; He does whatever pleases Him" (Psalm 115:3; 135:6). He created everything in heaven and earth to fulfil His purpose. "The LORD has made everything for His purpose..." (Proverbs 16:4). The twenty elders around His throne proclaim this day and night, saying: "You are worthy, our Lord and God, to receive glory and honour and power, for You created all things, and by Your will, they were created and have their being." (Revelation 4:11)

God desires all His creatures, especially humans, to accept and live by His will. Jesus clearly expressed this point in Matthew 7:21 saying: "Not everyone who says to me, 'Lord, Lord,' will enter the kingdom of heaven, but only the one who does the will of my Father who is in heaven." To press this point home, Jesus modelled a life that perfectly conforms to God's will and demonstrated that this life did not always take the easy course. The Gethsemane scene depicts this most vividly. As Jesus prayed to the Father, He acknowledged both the strength of His own will and His commitment to God's: "My Father, if it is possible, may this cup be taken from me. Yet not as I will, but as you will My Father, if it is not possible for this cup to be taken away unless I drink it, may your will be done" (Matthew 26:39 Matthew 26:42; cf. Mark 14:36; Luke 22:42).

Like Mary and Jesus, surrendering to God's will is not easy but necessary for our enjoyment of God's many blessings and our spiritual development as well. Nothing pleases the Lord more than for His people to desire His will and to do it. Doing the will of God places one in a vantage position to receive the unimaginable blessing of God. The Magnificat (Mary's Song of Praise) in Luke 1: 46-55 is an eloquent testimony to the ultimate reward of placing the will of God first in one's life.

Trusting God when things are going well, and our next step is clear is easy. However, there are obstacles to doing the will of God. Difficulties may arise from the world in which we live; they may come from our fallen human nature; they can even be God's plan for us. God has His plan. "For my thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways my ways," declares the LORD. For instance, Mary had plans to have perhaps an elaborate society wedding, but God came with His plan, which is at variance with hers. The world makes doing God's will difficult. The Bible says: "...anyone who chooses to be a friend of the world becomes an enemy of God."

(James 4:4). The devil is another potent enemy of the Lord's will. The more sincerely you want to do the will of God, the more the devil will tempt you, primarily through discouragement, worry, and anxiety.

Still, God calls us to trust Him daily with our lives and purposes, no matter how difficult. With limited information and control, we must continue to trust God's path and provision with utmost humility and reverence for His sovereignty - "for it is God who works in you to will and to act in order to fulfil His good purpose." (Philippians 2:13). Mary and Jesus deferred to God and submitted themselves to His authority to fulfil His purpose for their lives. We, too, must do the same; we must defer to God in all situations, not crumbling under the murmurs of self-will but embracing His perfect will even when it is inconvenient or in tandem with our plans.

Mary did not lean on her own understanding or limited perspective in her unsure state. Instead, she accepted the word of God as spoken and made herself available for the Lord's purpose. Proverbs 3:5 & 6 encourage us: "Trust in the Lord with all your heart and lean not on your own understanding; in all your ways submit to Him, and He will make your paths straight." We must accept the word of God and yield ourselves as it comes to us without rationalising or philosophising.

God's plans for our lives may take us down windy and uncertain roads. We may not always know how to go about it, and our fears may increase. However, we can take comfort in Mary's story and be reminded that God will lead, guide, and direct us. "For I know the plans I have for you," declares the Lord, "plans to prosper you and not to harm you, plans to give you hope and a future." (Jeremiah 29:11)
